Pratt, came with 12th Reinforcements of 1st Battalion, and I recognise his number. He was killed in the Fromelles stunt on July 19th. He was killed about 15 yards from our own parapet, shot right through the head and killed at once. I saw Paddy Moate wounded a few yards to the right of Pratt. He was badly wounded, blood all over his shoulder. I saw Outlaw too, hit very badly at the same place. Bodies of men lying out were buried eventually, but they lay there for some weeks.

OUTLAW, W.S. 3367

W & M. July 19th 1916.

I knew him very well. He was a pal of mine. Came from the same place, River Street, Forest Hill, Canterbury, Sydney, N.S.W. He was at Flourbaix. Pte O'Connor was wounded in that action, and I saw him immediately after. He said that Outlaw was wounded and left in the German lines, and he must be a prisoner. Pte Shark was with Outlaw. Shark's people have had a letter from him saying that he was a prisoner of war in Germany, but as far as I know he did not mention whether Outlaw was with him.
