Dear Madam,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your communication of 25th March, together with remittance for nine photographs of the grave of your son, the late No. 933 Private T. J. O. Wallis, 46th Battalion, and to state when same are to hand they will be promptly transmitted to you.

Please find receipt for remittance enclosed herewith.

Some time must of necessity elapse before the photographs come to hand, as requests are referred to London, from whence copies are transmitted to this office for distribution.

Yours faithfully,

Major.
Officer i/c Base Records.
