The Australian Government having authorised the issue of a new uniform (Service Jacket, Breeches, Hat and Puttees, or Leggings) to each member of the A.I.F. prior to his return to his home, arrangements will be made for such uniform to be issued on board ship, at first Port of call in Australia, or immediately on disembarkation. All ranks should carefully preserve their Regimental colour patches, chevrons etc., from all discarded Jackets so as to have them available to place on new Jackets, supplied in accordance with the arrangement.

The officer in charge of each draft will be responsible for the safe custody of these forms during voyage to Australia and for their handing over to the defence authorities in Australia.
